DEFENSE NUCLEAR FACILITIES SAFETY BOARD

Washington, DC 20004-2901

The Honorable Dan Brouillette
Secretary of Energy
US Department of Energy
1000 Independence Avenue, SW
Washington, DC 20585-1000

Dear Secretary Brouillette:

We are pleased to recognize that the Department of Energy has awarded Mr. William Satterfield of DOE's Savannah River Operations Office (DOE-SR) under the Office of Environmental Management the 2019 Annual Safety System Oversight (SSO) Award.

Mr. Satterfield demonstrated outstanding leadership by identifying numerous areas for contractor improvements within the Savannah River Liquid Waste Program. He also volunteered to provide important technical support to the Carlsbad Field Office in overseeing operations at the Waste Isolation Pilot Plant. These and other accomplishments make Mr. Satterfield well deserving of this professional honor.

We join you and your field office managers in acknowledging the importance of the contributions made by DOE's SSO engineers and extend our sincerest congratulations and best wishes to Mr. Satterfield. We invite Mr. Satterfield to meet with our executives during his next visit to the DC area.

Yours truly,

Bruce Hamilton
Chairman

c: Mr. Michael Budney
Mr. William Satterfield
Mr. Joe Olencz

VOTE: Disapproved

COMMENTS:

This is congenial correspondence, and while I have no first-hand knowledge of the award winner or of his contributions, I am confident in the Secretary of Energy's assessment that he is deserving of the honor.

That notwithstanding, it is unfitting for the Board, which is charged with providing independent safety oversight, to endorse or recognize the performance of individuals within the Department of Energy. Doing so would contribute to greater familiarity and informality with Departmental actors, thus eroding, albeit marginally in this case, the Board's independence and objectivity, particularly in the eyes of the public.

I therefore disapprove.
